Dear Ms Calle,

my name is Alexandra Anagnostopoulou and I am a twenty-nine year old greek artist.

I am familiar to your “prenez soin de vous” and recently the published book concerning this work came to my hands.

As so many other women have done, I have also created an interpretation to this past situation of yours using my means.

Even if the work is formally completed or you haven't asked me to do so, I believe that it would be nice for my answer to reach the receiver. Having this strong desire to share it with you I am sending it to you.

It is written in greek and cannot be translated in some other language so I am also sending you a phonetic translation and an explanatory text of the main idea in english.

I can be contacted at the address above or also by e-mail at alexandra_an01@hotmail.com
I hope to hear from you soon.

Warmest regards,
Alexandra Anagnostopoulou
